Harrison, J. Park. The Easter Islanders. Journal of the Anthropolical Institute, Vol. 5, pp. 111-114. London, 1876.

Yale: NkO R81 v. 5

[This account is an extract of an abbreviated translation derived from an official report of an officer of the Chilian Navy. The material is of doubtful value at best.]

Janssen, Tepano. Easter Island. Transactions of the Fijian Society for the Year 1920. Suva, Fiji, 1921. Pp. 20-28. (Translated from the French by George Mackay.)

Free Library of Philadelphia

[This short paper presents a brief and superficial sketch of Easter Island history. The author while on Easter Island met a native who was persuaded to "translate" the famous Easter Island script. An account of this "translation" is included. All later experts have rejected this so-called translation as being entirely a fabrication by the native involved. The source has not been processed for this reason. --Analyst]